

course objectives

Successful completion of the course and examination will enable candidates to:

- play an active part in monitoring health and safety practices
- take an active part in some training activities, especially on job training
- supervise workers effectively in general aspects of health and safety
- identify the need for risk assessment and participate in the process
- encourage safe practices
- assist management in the formulation of health and safety policies and instructions etc.

who is the course for?

Supervisors, owners, team leaders or Managers who are responsible for health and safety

duration / format

Minimum 18 hours training time usually delivered over 3 or 4 days.

Assessment is based on a 2 hour, 60-question multiple choice examination.

instructor / trainee ratio

Min 1:6 Max 1:15

awarding body

Chartered Institute Of Environmental Health (CIEH)
Registered Centre 58003

course content

- Concept of health & safety
- Developing a health & safety culture
- Accidents in the workplace
- Ill health in the workplace
- Legal provisions
- Health and safety organisation and management
- Supervising health and safety

course requirements / notes

Suitable students for the course and examination will need to have a basic awareness of health and safety issues and will be encouraged to demonstrate how they can influence others and positively encourage good standards.

Training venues will need to provide adequate seating and tables as attendees will undertake a written test.

further information / contact us

Cognet Limited

18 Lincoln Fields
Billingsley
Bridgnorth
Shropshire WV16 6PB

Freephone: 0800 7811041

Email: info@cognet-training.co.uk Web: cognet-training.co.uk